TO THE
RIGHT HONOURABLE
THE LORDS and COMMONS assembled in PARLIAMENT:

The humble Advice of the Assembly of DIVINES sitting at Westminster, Concerning
A larger Catechisme.

QUESTION.

What is the chief and highest end of man?

A. Mans chief and highest end is, to glorifie God^a, and fully to enjoy him for ever^b.

Q. How doth it appear that there is a God?

A. The very light of nature in man, and the works of God, declare plainly that there is a God^c:
but

Isa. 59. 21.
 but his Word and Spirit onely doe sufficiently and effectually reveale him unto men for their salvation d.

Q. What is the Word of God?

A. The holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the Word of God e; the onely Rule of Faith and Obedience f.

Isa. 8. 20. Luk. 16. 29, 31. Gal. 1. 8, 9. 2 Tim. 3. 15, 16, 17.

Q. How doth it appear that the Scriptures are the Word of God?

A. The Scriptures manifest themselves to be the Word of God, by their majesty g and purity h; by the consent of all the parts i, and the scope of the whole, which is to give all glory to God k; by their light and power to convince and convert sinners, to comfort and build up beleevers unto salvation l: But the Spirit of God, bearing wit-nesse by and with the Scriptures in the heart of man, is alone able fully to perswade it, that they are the very Word of God m.

Jam. 1. 18. Joh. 20. 31.

Q. What doe the Scriptures principally teach?

A. The Scriptures principally teach, what man is to beleeve concerning God, and what duty God requires of man n.

2 Tim. 1. 13.

Q. What doe the Scriptures make known of God?

A. The Scriptures make known what God is o, the Persons in the God-head p, his Decrees q, and the execution of his Decrees r.

Q. What is God?

A. God is a Spirit s, in and of himself infinite in being t,

Q. Are there more Gods then one?

A. There is but one onely, the living and true God k.

Q. How many Persons are there in the Godhead?

A. There be three Persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, and these three are one, true, eternall God, the same in substance, equall in power and glory; although distinguished by their Personall Properties l.

Q. What are the Personall Properties of the three Persons in the Godhead?

A. It is proper to the Father to beget the Son m, and to the Son to be begotten of the Father n, and to the Holy Ghost to proceed from the Father and the Son, from all eternity o.

Q. How doth it appear that the Son and the Holy Ghost are God, equall with the Father?

A. The Scriptures manifest that the Son, and the Holy Ghost are God equall with the Father, ascribing unto them such Names p, attributes q, works r, and worship, as are proper to God onely s.

q Joh. 1. 1. Isa. 9. 6. Joh. 2. 24, 25. 1 Cor. 2. 10, 11. 1 Col. 1. 16. Gen. 1. 2. Mat. 18. 19. 2 Cor. 13. 14.

Q. What are the Decrees of God?

A. Gods Decrees are the wise, free, and holy acts of the counsell of his will t, whereby from all eternity, he hath for his own glory, unchangeably, fore-ordained whatsoever comes to passe in time u; especially concerning Angels and men.

Q. What

Q. What hath God especially decreed concerning Angels and Men?

A. God by an eternall and immutable Decree, out of his meer love, for the praise of his glorious grace to be manifested in due time, hath elected some Angels to glory^w; and in Christ hath chosen some men to eternall life, and the means thereof^x: and also according to his sovereign power, and the unsearchable counsell of his own will, (whereby he extendeth or withholdeth favour as he pleaseth) hath passed by and fore-ordained the rest to dishonour and wrath, to be for their sin inflicted, to the praise of the glory of his justice^y.

Q. How doth God execute his Decrees?

A. God executeth his Decrees in the works of Creation and Providence; according to his infallible foreknowledge, and the free and immutable counsell of his own will^z.

Q. What is the work of Creation?

A. The work of Creation, is that, wherein God did, in the beginning, by the word of his Power, make of nothing, the World and all things therein, for himself, within the space of six daies, and all very good^a.

Q. How did God create the Angels?

A. God created all the Angels^b, spirits^c, immortall^d, holyl^e, excelling in knowledge^f, mighty in power^g, to execute his Commandements, and to praise his Name^h; yet subject to changeⁱ.

Q. How did God create man?

A. After God had made all other creatures, he created man male and female^k; formed the body of the man of the dust of the ground^l; and the woman of a rib of the man^m; indued them with living, reasonable, and immortall tall soulsⁿ; made them after his own image^o, in knowledge^p, righteousness, and holiness^q, having the Law of God written in their hearts^r; and power to fulfill it^s, with dominion over the creatures^t; yet subject to fall^u.

Q. What are Gods works of Providence?

A. Gods works of Providence are, his most holy^w, wise^x, and powerfull, preserving^y and governing all his creatures^z, ordering them and all their actions^a to his own glory^b.

^{30, 31.} Gen. 4. 5, 7. ^b Rom. 11. 36. ^c Is. 63. 14.

Q. What is Gods Providence toward the Angels?

A. God by his providence permitted some of the Angels, wilfully and irrecoverably to fall into sin and damnation^c, limiting and ordering that, and all their sins to his own glory^d; and established the rest in holiness and happiness^e; imploing them all^f; at his pleasure, in the administrations of his power, mercy, and justice^g.

Q. What was the Providence of God toward man in the estate in which he was created?

A. The Providence of God toward man, in the estate in which he was created, was, the placing him in Paradise, appointing him to dresse it, giving him liberty to eat of the fruit of the earth^h, putting the creatures under his dominionⁱ, and ordaining marriage for his help^k; affording him communion with himself^l, instituting the Sabbath^m, entering into a Covenant of life with him, upon condition of personall, perfect, and perpetuall obedienceⁿ, of which the Tree of Life was a pledge^o, and forbidding

Gen. 2. 17. bidding to eat of the Tree of the Knowledge of good and evil, upon pain of death ^p.

Q. Did man continue in that estate wherein God at first created him?

A. Our first Parents being left to the freedom of their own will, through the temptation of Satan transgressed the Commandement of God, in eating the forbidden fruit, and thereby fell from the estate of Innocency, wherein they were created ^q.

Q. Did all mankind fall in that first transgression?

A. The Covenant being made with Adam as a public person, not for himself only, but for his posterity, all mankind descending from him by ordinary generation, sinned in him, and fell with him in that first transgression ^r.

Q. Into what estate did the fall bring mankind?

A. The Fall brought mankind into an estate of sin and misery ^s.

Q. What is Sin?

A. Sin is any want of conformity unto, or transgression of any Law of God, given as a rule to the reasonable creature ^t.

Q. Wherein consisteth the sinfulness of that estate wherinto man fell?

A. The sinfulness of that estate wherinto man fell, consisteth in the guilt of Adams first sin ^w, the want of that righteousness wherein he was created, and the corruption of his nature, whereby he is utterly indisposed, disabled, and made opposite unto all that is spiritually good, and wholly inclined to all evil, and that continually ^x, which is commonly called Originall Sin, and from which do proceed all actual transgressions ^y.

Q. How

Q. How is Originall Sin conveyed from our first Parents unto their posterity?

A. Originall Sin is conveyed from our first Parents unto their posterity by naturall generation, so as all that proceed from them in that way, are conceived and born in sin ^z.

Q. What misery did the fall bring upon mankind?

A. The Fall brought upon mankind the losse of Communion with God ^a, his displeasure and curse, so as we are by nature children of wrath ^b, bond-slaves to Satan ^c, and justly liable to all punishments in this world, and that which is to come ^d.

Q. What are the punishments of Sin in this world?

A. The punishments of Sin in this world, are, either inward, as blindness of minde ^e, a reprobate sense ^f, strong delusions ^g, hardness of heart ^h, horror of conscience ⁱ, and vile affections ^k: or outward, as the curse of God upon the creatures for our sakes ^l, and all other evils that befall us in our bodies, names, estates, relations, and employments, together with death it self ^m.

^l Gen. 3. 17. ^m Deut. 28. 15. to the end. ⁿ Rom. 6. 21, 23.

Q. What are the punishments of Sin in the world to come?

A. The punishments of Sin in the world to come, are everlasting separation from the comfortable presence of God, and most grievous torments in soul and body without intermission, in hell fire, for ever ^o.

Q. Doth God leave all mankind to perish in the estate of sin and misery?

A. God doth not leave all mankind to perish in the estate of sin and misery ^p into which they fell by the breach breach of the first Covenant, commonly called the Covenant of Works^a; but, of his meer love and mercy, delivereth his elect out of it, and bringeth them into an estate of salvation by the second Covenant, commonly called the Covenant of Grace^r.

Q. With whom was the Covenant of Grace made?

A. The Covenant of Grace was made with Christ, as the second Adam, and, in him, with all the elect, as his seed^r.

Q. How is the Grace of God manifested in the second Covenant?

A. The Grace of God is manifested in the second Covenant, in that he freely provideth and offereth to sinners a Mediator^r, and life and salvation by him^u; and, requiring Faith as the condition to interest them in him^w, promiseth and giveth his holy Spirit^v to all his elect to work in them that Faith^y, with all other saving graces^z, and to inable them unto all holy obedience^a, as the evidence of the truth of their faith^b and thankfulness to God^c, and as the way which he hath appointed them to salvation^d.

Q. Was the Covenant of Grace alwaies administred after one and the same manner?

A. The Covenant of Grace was not alwaies administred after the same manner, but the administrations of it under the Old Testament were different from those under the New^e.

Q. How was the Covenant of Grace administred under the Old Testament?

A. The Covenant of Grace was administred under the Old Testament, by promises^f, prophecies^g, Sacrifices^h, Circumcisionⁱ, the Passover^k, and other types and ordinances, nances, which did all fore-signifie Christ then to come, and were for that time sufficient to build up the elect in faith in the promised Messiah^l, by whom they then had full remission of sin, and eternall salvation^m.

Q. How is the Covenant of Grace administred under the New Testament?

A. Under the New Testament, when Christ the substance was exhibited, the same Covenant of Grace was and still is to be administred in the preaching of the wordⁿ, and the administration of the Sacraments of Baptisme^o and the Lords Supper^p; in which, Grace and salvation is held forth in more fulnes, evidence, and efficacy, to all nations^q.

Q. Who is the Mediator of the Covenant of Grace?

A. The onely Mediator of the Covenant of Grace is the Lord Jesus Christ^r, who being the eternall Son of God, of one substance and equall with the Father^s, in the fullnesse of time became man^t, and so was and continues to be God and man in two intire distinct natures, and one person, for ever^u.

Q. How did Christ, being God, become man?

A. Christ the Son of God became Man by taking to himself a true body, and a reasonable soul^w, being conceived by the power of the Holy Ghost, in the womb of the Virgin Mary, of her substance, and born of her^x, yet without sin^y.

Q. Why was it requisite, that the Mediator should be God?

A. It was requisite that the Mediator should be God, that he might sustain and keep the humane nature from sinking under the infinite wrath of God, and the power of death^z; give worth and efficacy to his sufferings, obedience dience and intercession^a; and so satisfie Gods justice^b, procure his favour^c, purchase a peculiar people^d, give his Spirit to them^e, conquer all their enemies^f, and bring them to everlasting salvation^g.

Q. Why was it requisite that the Mediator should be Man?

A. It was requisite that the Mediator should be Man, that he might advance our nature^h, performe obedience to the Lawⁱ, suffer and make intercession for us in our nature^k, have a fellow-feeling of our infirmities^l; that we might receive the adoption of sons^m, and have comfort and access with boldnesse unto the throne of Graceⁿ.

Q. Why was it requisite that the Mediator should be God and man in one person?

A. It was requisite that the Mediator, who was to reconcile God and man, should himself be both God and man, and this in one person, that the proper works of each nature might be accepted of God for us^o, and relyed on by us, as the works of the whole person^p.

Q. Why was our Mediator called Jesus?

A. Our Mediator was called Jesus, because he saveth his people from their sins^q.

Q. Why was our Mediator called Christ?

A. Our Mediator was called Christ, because he was anointed with the Holy Ghost above measure^r, and so, set apart, and fully furnished with all authority and ability^s to execute the Offices of Prophet^t, Priest^u, and King of his Church^w, in the estate both of his Humiliation and Exaltation.

Q. How

Q. How doth Christ execute the office of a Prophet?

A. Christ executeth the Office of a Prophet, in his revealing to the Church^x, in all ages, by his Spirit and Word^y, in divers waies of administration^z, the whole will of God^a in all things concerning their edification and salvation^b.

Q. How doth Christ execute the Office of a Priest?

A. Christ executeth the Office of a Priest, in his once offering himself a Sacrifice without spot to God^c, to be a reconciliation for the sins of his people^d, and in making continuall intercession for them^e.

Q. How doth Christ execute the Office of a King?

A. Christ executeth the Office of a King, in calling out of the world a people to himself^f, and giving them Officers^g, Laws^h, and Censures, by which he visibly governs themⁱ; in bestowing saving grace upon his elect^k, rewarding their obedience^l, and correcting them for their sins^m, preserving and supporting them under all their temptations and sufferingsⁿ, restraining and overcoming all their enemies^o, and powerfully ordering all things for his own glory^p and their good^q; and also in taking vengeance on the rest, who know not God, and obey not the Gospel^r.

Q. What was the estate of Christs Humiliation?

A. The estate of Christs Humiliation was, that low condition, wherein, he, for our sakes, emptying himself of his glory, took upon him the form of a servant in his conception and birth, life, death, and after his death untill his resurrection¹.

Q. How did Christ humble himself in his Conception and Birth?

A. Christ

A. Christ humbled himself in his conception and birth, in that, being, from all eternity, the Son of God, in the bosome of the Father, he was pleased in the fulness of time to become the Son of man, made of a woman of low estate, and to be born of her, with divers circumstances of more then ordinary abasement.

Q. How did Christ humble himself in his life?

A. Christ humbled himself in his life, by subjecting himself to the Law^u, which he perfectly fulfilled^w, and by conflicting with the indignities of the world^x, temptations of Satan^y, and infirmities in his flesh, whether common to the nature of man, or particularly accompanying that his low condition^z.

Q. How did Christ humble himself in his death?

A. Christ humbled himself in his death, in that having been betrayed by Judas^a, forsaken by his Disciples^b, scorned and rejected by the world^c, condemned by Pilate, and tormented by his persecutors^d; having also conflicted with the terrours of death, and the powers of darknesse, felt and born the weight of Gods wrath^e; he laid down his life an offering for sin^f, induring the painfull, shamefull, and cursed death of the crosse^g.

Q. Wherein consisted Christs humiliation after his death?

A. Christs humiliation after his death, consisted in his being buried^h, and continuing in the state of the dead, and under the power of death till the third dayⁱ; which hath been otherwise expressed in these words, He descended into Hell.

Q. What was the estate of Christs Exaltation?

A. The estate of Christs Exaltation comprehendeth his his Resurrection^k, Ascension^l, sitting at the right hand of the Father^m, and his Coming again to Judge the worldⁿ.

Q. How was Christ exalted in his Resurrection?

A. Christ was exalted in his Resurrection, in that, not having seen corruption in death, of which it was not possible for him to be held^o; and having the very same body in which he suffered, with the essentiall properties thereof^p, but without mortality and other common infirmities belonging to this life, really united to his soul^q, he rose again from the dead the third day, by his own power^r; whereby he declared himself to be the Son of God^s, to have satisfied divine justice^t, to have vanquished death and him that had the power of it^u, and to be Lord of quick and dead^v; all which he did as a publike person^x, the head of his Church^y, for their Justification^z, quickning in grace^a, support against enemies^b, and to assure them of their resurrection from the dead at the last day^c.

Q. How was Christ exalted in his Ascension?

A. Christ was exalted in his Ascension, in that having after his Resurrection often appeared unto, and conversed with his Apostles, speaking to them of the things pertaining to the Kingdom of God^d, and giving them commission to preach the Gospel to all nations^e; forty daies after his resurrection, he, in our nature, and as our head^f, triumphing over enemies^g, visibly went up into the highest heavens, there to receive gifts for men^h, to raise up our affections thitherⁱ, and to prepare a place for us^k, where himself is, and shall continue, till his second coming at the end of the world^l.

Q. How is Christ exalted in his sitting at the right hand of God?

m Acts 3. 21.

A. Christ is exalted in his sitting at the right hand of God, in that, as God-man he is advanced to highest favour with God the Father^m, with all fullness of joyⁿ, glory^o, and power over all things in heaven and earth^p, and doth gather and defend his Church, and subdue their enemies, furnisheth his ministers and people with gifts and graces^q, and maketh intercession for them^r.

Q. How doth Christ make Intercession?

A. Christ maketh Intercession, by his appearing in our nature continually before the Father in heaven^s, in the merit of his obedience and sacrifice on earth^t, declaring his will to have it applied to all beleevers^u, answering all accusations against them^w, procuring for them quiet of conscience notwithstanding daily failings^x, access to the throne of Grace^y, and acceptance of their persons^z and services^a.

Q. How is Christ to be exalted in his coming again to judge the world?

A. Christ is to be exalted in his coming again to judge the world, in that he who was unjustly judged and condemned by wicked men^b, shall come again at the last day in great power^c, and in the full manifestation of his own glory, and of his Fathers, with all his holy Angels^d, with a shout, with the voice of the Archangel, and with the trumpet of God^e, to judge the world in righteousness^f.

Q. What benefits hath Christ procured by his Mediation?

A. Christ by his Mediation hath procured Redemption^g, with all other benefits of the Covenant of Grace^h.

Q. How doe we come to be made partakers of the benefits which Christ hath procured?

A. We

A. We are made partakers of the benefits which Christ hath procured, by the application of them unto usⁱ, which is the work especially of God the Holy Ghost^k.

Q. Who are made partakers of Redemption by Christ?

A. Redemption is certainly applied, and effectually communicated to all those for whom Christ hath purchased it^l, who are in time by the Holy Ghost inabled to beleeve in Christ according to the Gospel^m.

Q. Can they who have never heard the Gospel, and so, know not Jesus Christ, nor beleeve in him, be saved by their living according to the light of nature?

A. They who, having never heard the Gospelⁿ, know not Jesus Christ^o, and beleeve not in him, cannot be saved^p, be they never so diligent to frame their lives according to the light of nature^q, or the Law of that Religion which they professe^r; neither is there salvation in any other, but in Christ alone^s, who is the saviour only of his body the Church^t.

Q. Are all they saved who hear the Gospel and live in the Church?

A. All that hear the Gospel and live in the visible Church are not saved, but they only who are true members of the Church invisible^u.

Q. What is the visible Church?

A. The visible Church is a society made up of all such as in all ages and places of the world doe professe the true Religion^w, and of their children^x.

Rev. 7. 9. Psal. 2. 8. Psal. 22. 27, 28, 29, 30, 31. Psal. 45. 17. Mar. 28. 19, 20. Isa. 59. 21.
1 Cor. 7. 14. Acts 2. 39. Rom. 11. 16. Gen. 17. 7.

Q. What are the speciall priviledges of the visible Church?

A. The visible Church hath the priviledge of being under Gods speciall care and government ^y, of being protected and preserved in all ages, notwithstanding the opposition of all enemies ^z, and of injoying the communion of Saints, the ordinary means of salvation ^a, offers of grace by Christ to all the members of it in the ministry of the Gospel, testifying, that whosoever beleeves in him shall be saved ^b, and excluding none that will come unto him ^c.

Q. What is the Invisible Church?

A. The Invisible Church is the whole number of the elect, that have been, are, or shall be gathered into one, under Christ the Head ^d.

Q. What speciall Benefits doe the members of the Invisible Church enjoy by Christ?

A. The members of the Invisible Church, by Christ, enjoy Union and Communion with him, in Grace and Glory ^e.

Q. What is that Vnion which the Elect have with Christ?

A. The Union which the Elect have with Christ, is the work of Gods grace ^f, whereby they are spiritually and mystically, yet really and inseparably joined to Christ, as their head and husband ^g, which is done in their effectuall Calling ^h.

Q. What is effectuall Calling?

A. Effectuall Calling is the work of Gods almighty power and grace ⁱ, whereby, out of his free and speciall love to his elect, and from nothing in them moving him thereunto ^k, he doth in his accepted time invite and draw them to Jesus Christ by his Word and Spirit,

Spirit^l, savingly inlightning their mindes ^m, renewing and powerfully determining their wills ⁿ, so as they, although in themselves dead in sin, are hereby made willing and able freely to answer his call, and to accept and imbrace the grace offered and conveyed therein ^o.

Q. Are the Elect onely effectually called?

A. All the Elect, and they only, are effectually called ^p; although others may be, and often are, outwardly called by the ministry of the Word ^q, and have some common operations of the Spirit ^r, who, for their willfull neglect and contempt of the grace offered to them, being justly left in their unbelief, doe never truly come to Jesus Christ ^s.

Q. What is the Communion in Grace which the members of the Invisible Church have with Christ?

A. The Communion in grace, which the members of the Invisible Church have with Christ, is, their partaking of the vertue of his Mediation, in their Justification ^t, Adoption ^u, Sanctification, and whatever else in this life manifests their Union with him ^w.

Q. What is Justification?

A. Justification is an act of Gods free grace unto sinners ^x, in which he pardoneth all their sins, accepteth and accounteth their persons righteous in his sight ^y, not for any thing wrought in them, or done by them ^z, but only for the perfect obedience and full satisfaction of Christ, by God imputed to them ^a, and received by Faith alone ^b.

Q. Are all transgressions of the Law equally heinous?

A. Some sins in themselves, and by reason of several aggravations, are more heinous in the sight of God than others a.

Q. What doth every sin deserve?

A. Every sin deserveth Gods wrath, and curse, both in this life, and that which is to come b.

Q. What doth God require of us, that we may escape his wrath and curse, due to us for sin?

A. To escape the wrath and curse of God due to us for sin, God requireth of us Faith in Jesus Christ, Repentance unto life c, with the diligent use of all the outward means, whereby Christ communicateth to us the benefits of Redemption d.

Q. What is Faith in Jesus Christ?

A. Faith in Jesus Christ is a saving grace e, whereby we receive, and rest upon him alone for Salvation, as he is offered to us in the Gospel f.

Q. What is repentance unto life?

A. Repentance unto life is a saving grace g, whereby a sinner out of a true sense of his sin h, and apprehension of the mercy of God in Christ i, doth, with grief and hatred of his sin, turn from it unto God k, with full purpose of, and endeavor after new obedience l.

Q. What are the outward means, whereby Christ communicateth to us the benefits of Redemption?

A. The outward and ordinary means, whereby Christ communicateth to us the benefits of Redemption, are, his Ordinances, especially the Word, Sacraments, and Prayer; all which are made effectual to the Elect, for Salvation m.

Q. How is the Word made effectual to salvation?

A. The

A. The Spirit of God maketh the Reading, but especially the Preaching of the word, an effectual means of convincing and converting sinners, and of building them up in holiness & comfort through faith unto salvation n.

Q. How is the Word to be read and heard, that it may become effectual to salvation?

A. That the Word may become effectual to salvation, we must attend thereunto with diligence o, preparation p, and prayer q, receive it with faith and love r, lay it up in our hearts s, and practice it in our lives t.

Q. How do the Sacraments become effectual means of salvation?

A. The Sacraments become effectual means of salvation, not from any vertue in them, or in him that doth administer them, but onely by the blessing of Christ u, and the working of his spirit, in them that by faith receive them w.

Q. What is a Sacrament?

A. A Sacrament is an holy Ordinance instituted by Christ, wherein, by sensible Signs, Christ and the benefits of the New Covenant are represented, sealed, and applied to Believers x.

Q. Which are the Sacraments of the New Testament?

A. The Sacraments of the New Testament are, Baptism y, and the Lords Supper z.

Q. What is baptism?

A. Baptism is a Sacrament, wherein the Washing with Water, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost a, doth signifie and seal our ingrafting into Christ, and partaking of the benefits of the Covenant of Grace, and our engagement to be the Lords b.

Q. To whom is Baptism to be administered?

Q. Wherein doe Justification and Sanctification differ?

A. Although Sanctification be inseparably joined with Justification^f; yet they differ, in that God in Justification imputeth the righteousness of Christ^g, in Sanctification his Spirit infuseth grace, and enableth to the exercise thereof^h; in the former sin is pardonedⁱ, in the other it is subdued^k; the one doth equally free all beleevers from the revenging wrath of God, and that perfectly in this life, that they never fall into condemnation^l; the other is neither equall in all^m, nor in this life perfect in anyⁿ, but growing up to perfection^o.

Q. Whence ariseth the imperfection of Sanctification in beleevers?

A. The imperfection of Sanctification in beleevers, ariseth from the remnants of sin abiding in every part of them, and the perpetuall lustings of the flesh against the spirit, whereby they are often foiled with temptations, and fall into many sins^c, are hindered in all their spirituall services^d, and their best works are imperfect and defiled in the sight of God^e.

Q. May not true beleevers, by reason of their imperfections, and the many temptations and sins they are overtaken with, fall away from the state of Grace?

A. True beleevers, by reason of the unchangeable love of God^f, and his decree and covenant to give them perseverance^g, their inseparable union with Christ^h, his continuall intercession for themⁱ, and the spirit and seed of God abiding in them^k, can neither totally nor finally fall away from the state of grace^l, but are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation^m.

Q. Can true beleevers be infallibly assured that they are in the estate of grace, and that they shall persevere therein unto salvation?

A. Such

A. Such as truly beleeve in Christ, and endeavour to walk in all good conscience before himⁿ, may, without extraordinary revelation, by faith grounded upon the truth of Gods promises, and by the spirit enabling them to discern in themselves those graces to which the promises of life are made^o, and bearing witness with their spirits that they are the children of God^p, be infallibly assured that they are in the estate of grace, and shall persevere therein unto salvation^q.

Q. Are all true beleevers at all times assured of their present being in the estate of grace, and that they shall be saved?

A. Assurance of grace and salvation not being of the essence of faith^r, true beleevers may wait long before they obtain it^s, and after the enjoyment thereof may have it weakened and intermitted through manifold distempers, sins, temptations, and desertions^t; yet are they never left without such a presence and support of the Spirit of God, as keeps them from sinking into utter despair^u.

Q. What is the communion in Glory, which the members of the Invisible Church have with Christ?

A. The communion in glory which the members of the Invisible Church have with Christ is, in this life^v, immediatly after death^x, and at last perfected at the resurrection and day of Judgement^y.

Q. What is the communion in Glory, with Christ, which the members of the Invisible Church enjoy in this life?

A. The members of the Invisible Church have communicated to them in this life, the first fruits of glory with Christ, as they are members of him their head, and so, in him, are interested in that glory which he is fully fully possessed of^r; and, as an earnest thereof, enjoy the sense of Gods love^a, peace of conscience, joy in the holy Ghost, and hope of glory^b: as, on the contrary, the sense of Gods revenging wrath, horreur of conscience, and a fearfull expectation of judgement, are, to the wicked, the beginning of their torments which they shall endure after death^c.

Q. Shall all men die?

A. Death being threatned as the wages of sin^d, it is appointed unto all men once to die^e, for that all have sinned^f.

Q. Death being the wages of sin, why are not the righteous delivered from death, seeing all their sins are forgiven in Christ?

A. The righteous shall be delivered from death it self at the last day, and even in death are delivered from the sting and curse of it^g, so that, although they die, yet it is out of Gods love^h, to free them perfectly from sin and miseryⁱ, and to make them capable of further communion with Christ in glory, which they then enter upon^k.

Q. What is the communion in Glory with Christ, which the members of the invisible Church enjoy immediatly after death?

A. The communion in Glory with Christ, which the members of the invisible Church enjoy immediatly after death, is, in that their souls are then made perfect in holiness^l, and received into the highest heavens^m, where they behold the face of God in light and gloryⁿ, waiting for the full redemption of their bodies^o, which even in death continue united to Christ^p, and rest in their graves; as in their beds^q, till at the last day day they be again united to their souls^r: whereas the souls of the wicked are at death cast into hell, where they remain in torments and utter darknesse, and their bodies kept in their graves, as in their prisons, till the resurrection and judgement of the great day^s.

Q. What are we to beleve concerning the Resurrection?

A. We are to beleve that at the last day there shall be a generall resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust^t; when they that are then found alive, shall in a moment be changed; and the self same bodies of the dead which were laid in the grave, being then again united to their souls for ever, shall be raised up by the power of Christ^u; the bodies of the just, by the Spirit of Christ, and by vertue of his resurrection, as their head, shall be raised in power, spirituall, incorruptible, and made like to his glorious body^w, and the bodies of the wicked shall be raised up in dishonour, by him, as an offended judge^x.

Q. What shall immediately follow after the resurrection?

A. Immediately after the resurrection shall follow the generall and finall judgement of Angels and men^y, the day and hour whereof no man knoweth, that all may watch and pray, and be ever ready for the coming of the Lord^z.

Q. What shall be done to the wicked at the day of judgement?

A. At the day of judgement the wicked shall be set on Christs left hand^a, and, upon clear evidence, and full conviction of their own consciences^b, shall have the fearfull, but just, sentence of condemnation pronounced against them^c; and thereupon shall be cast out from the favourable ble presence of God, and the glorious fellowship with Christ, his Saints, and all his holy Angels, into hell, to be punished with unspeakable torments, both of body and soul, with the devil and his Angels for ever^d.

Q. What shall be done to the righteous at the day of judgement?

A. At the day of judgement, the righteous, being caught up to Christ in the clouds^e, shall be set on his right hand, and there openly acknowledged, and acquitted^f; shall join with him in the judging of reprobate angels and men^g, and shall be received into heaven^h, where they shall be fully and for ever freed from all sinne and miseryⁱ, filled with unconceivable joyes^k, made perfectly holy and happy both in body and soul, in the company of innumerable Saints, and holy Angels^l, but especially in the immediate vision and fruition of God the Father, of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of the holy Spirit, to all eternity^m; and this is the perfect and full communion which the members of the invisible Church shall injoy with Christ in glory at the resurrection and day of judgement.

Q. What particular use is there of the Morall Law to unregenerate men?

A. The Morall Law is of use to unregenerate men, to awaken their consciences to fly from wrath to come b, and to drive them to Christ c; or, upon their continuance in the estate and way of sin, to leave them inexcusable d, and under the curse thereof e.

Q. What speciall use is there of the Morall Law to the regenerate?

A. Although they that are regenerate, and beleve in Christ, be delivered from the Morall Law as a Covenant of workes f, so as thereby they are neither justified g nor condemned h; yet, beside the generall uses thereof common to them with all men, it is of speciall use, to shew them how much they are bound to Christ for his fulfilling it, and enduring the curse thereof in their stead, and for their good i; and thereby to provoke them to more thankfullnesse k, and to expresse the same in their greater care to conform themselves thereunto as the rule of their obedience l.

Q. Where is the Morall Law summarily comprehended?

Q. What Rules are to be observed for the right understanding of the ten Commandements?

A. For the right understanding of the ten Commandements, these rules are to be observed.

That the Law is perfect, and bindeth every one to full conformity in the whole man unto the righteousness thereof, and unto intire obedience, for ever; so as, to require the utmost perfection of every duty, and to forbid the least degree of every sin o.

That it is spirituall; and so, reacheth the Understanding, Will, Affections, and all other powers of the soule, as well as words, works, and gestures p.

That one and the samethings, in divers respects, is required or forbidden in severall Commandements q.

That, as, where a duty is commanded, the contrary sin is forbidden r; and, where a sin is forbidden the contrary duty is commanded s: so, where a promise is annexed, the contrary threatening is included t; and, where a threatening is annexed, the contrary promise is included u.

That, what God forbids, is at no time to be done w; what he commands, is alwaies our duty x, yet every particular duty is not to be done at all times y.

That, under one sin or duty, all of the same kinde are forbidden or commanded, together with all the causes, meanes, occasions, and appearances thereof, and provocations thereunto z.

That what is forbidden or commanded to our selves, we are bound, according to our places, to endeavour that

Q. What speciall things are we to consider in the ten Commandements?

A. We are to consider in the ten Commandements, the Preface, the substance of the Commandements themselves, and severall Reasons annexed to some of them the more to inforce them.

Q. What is the Preface to the Commandements?

A. The Preface to the Commandements is contained in these wordes [I am the Lord thy God which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt out of the house of bondage ^d;] wherein God manifesteth his sovereignty, as being Jehovah, the eternall, immutable, and almighty God ^e; having his Being in and of himself ^f; and giving being to all his words ^g and workes ^h; and that he is a God in Covenant, as with Israel of old, so with all his people ⁱ; who, as he brought them out of their bondage in Egypt, so he delivereth us from our spirituall thralldom ^k; and that therefore we are bound to take him for our God alone, and to keep all his Commandements ^l.

Q. What is the summe of the four Commandements, which contain our duty to God?

A. The summe of the four Commandements containing our duty to God, is, to love the Lord our God with all our heart, and with all our soule, and with all our strength, and with all our minde ^m.

Q. What Reasons are annexed to the third Commandment?

A. The Reasons annexed to the third Commandment in these words [The LORD thy GOD] and [For the LORD will not hold him guiltlesse that taketh his name in vain] are, because he is the LORD and our GOD, and therefore his name is not to be profaned, or any way abused by usⁱ; especially, because he will be so far from acquitting and sparing the transgressors fours of this Commandment, as that he will not suffer them to escape his righteous judgement^u, albeit many such escape the censures and punishments of men^w.

Q. Which is the fourth Commandment?

A. The fourth Commandment is, [Remember the Sabbath day to keepe it holy: six dayes shalt thou labour and doe all thy worke: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD thy GOD: in it thou shalt not doe any worke, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattell, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six dayes the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.]

Q. What is required in the fourth Commandment?

A. The fourth Commandment requireth of all men, the sanctifying, or keeping holy to God, such set time as he hath appointed in his word; expressly, one whole day in seven, which was the seventh from the beginning of the world to the resurrection of Christ, and the first day of the weeke ever since, and so to continue to the end of the world; which is the Christian Sabbath^y, and in the New Testament called the Lords day.^z

Q. How is the Sabbath, or Lords day, to be sanctified?

A. The Sabbath or Lords day is to be sanctified, by an holy resting all the day^a, not onely from such workes as are at all times sinfull, but even from such worldly imployments and recreations as are on other dayes lawfull^b; and making it our delight to spend the whole time (except so much of it as is to be taken up in works of necessity benefit of remembring it; we being thereby helped in our preparation to keep it^p, and, in keeping it, better to keep althe rest of the Commandements^q; and to continue a thank-full remembrance of the two great benefits of Creation, and Redemption, which contain a short abridgement of Religion^r; and partly because we are very ready to forget it^s; for that there is lesse light of nature for it^t, and yet it restraineth our naturall liberty in things at other times lawfull^u; that it cometh but once in seven dayes, and many worldly businessses come between, and too oftentake off our minds from thinking of it, either to prepare for it, or to sanctify it^w; and that Sathan with his instruments much labour to blot out the glory, and even the memory of it, to bring in all irreligion and impie-ty.^x

Q. Which is the tenth Commandment?

G 2

A. The

A. The tenth Commandment is, [Thou shalt not covet thy neighbours house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbours wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbours a.]

Q. What are the duties required in the tenth Commandment?

A. The duties required in the tenth Commandment, are, such a full contentment with our own condition b, and such a charitable frame of the whole soul toward our neighbour, as that all our inward motions and affections touching him tend unto and further all that good which is his c.

Q. What are the sins forbidden in the tenth Commandment?

A. The sins forbidden in the tenth Commandment, are, discontentment with our own estate d, envying e and grieving at the good of our neighbours f, together with all inordinate motions and affections to any thing that is his g.

Q. Is any man able perfectly to keep the Commandments of God?

A. No man is able, either of himself h, or by any grace received in this life, perfectly to keep the Commandments of God i, but doth daily break them in thought k, word, and deed l.

Q. Are all transgressions of the Law of God equally hainous in themselves, and in the sight of God?

A. All transgressions of the Law of God are not equally hainous: but some sins in themselves, and by reason of severall aggravations, are more hainous in the sight of God than others m.

Q. What are those aggravations that make some sins more hainous than others?

A. Sins receive their aggravations

From the persons offending n; if they be of riper age o, greater experience, or grace p; eminent for profession q, gifts r, place s, office t; guides to others u, and whose example is likely to be followed by others w.

From the parties offended x; if immediately against God y, his attributes z, and worship a; against Christ, and his grace b; the holy Spirit c, his witness d and workings e; against superiours, men of eminency f; and such as we stand especially related and engaged unto g; against any of the Saints h, particularly weak brethren i, the souls of them or any other k, and the common good of all or many l.

From the nature and quality of the offence m; if it be against the expresse letter of the Law n, break many Commandments, contain in it many sins o; if not onely conceived in the heart, but breaks forth in words and actions p, scandalize others q, and admit of no reparation r; if against means s, mercies t, judgements u, light of nature w, conviction of conscience x, publike or private admonition y, censures of the Church z, civil punishments a, and our own prayers, purposes, promises b, vows c, covenants d.

Q. By whom is the Word of God to be preached?

Q. The Word of God is to be preached onely by such as are sufficiently gifted k, and also duly approved and called to that office l.

Q. How is the Word of God to be preached by those that are called thereunto?

A. They that are called to labour in the ministry of the Word, are to preach sound doctrine m, diligently n, in season, and out of season o; plainly p, not in the enticing words of mans wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit, and power q; faithfully r, making known the whole counsel of God s; wisely t, applying themselves to the necessities and capacities of the hearers u; zealously w, with fervent love to God x, and the souls of his people y; sincerely z, aiming at his glory a, and their conversion b, edification c, and salvation d.

Q. What is required of those that hear the Word preached?

A. It is required of those that hear the Word preached, that they attend upon it with diligence e, preparation f, and prayer g; examine what they hear by the Scriptures h; receive the truth with faith i, love k, meeknesse l, and readinesse of minde m, as the Word of God n; meditate o, and confer of it p; hide it in their hearts q; and bring forth the fruit of it in their lives r.

Q. How do the Sacraments become effectual means of salvation?

A. The

A. The Sacraments become effectual means of salvation, not by any power in themselves, or any vertue derived from the piety and intention of him by whom they are administred; but only by the working of the holy Ghost, and the blessing of Christ by whom they are instituted.

Q. What is a Sacrament?

A. A Sacrament is an holy ordinance instituted by Christ in his Church, to signifie, seale, and exhibit, unto those that are within the Covenant of grace w, the benefits of his mediation x, to strengthen, and increase their faith, and all other graces y; to oblige them to obedience z; to testifie, and cherish their love and communion one with another a; and to distinguish them from those that are without.

Q. What are the parts of a Sacrament?

A. The parts of a Sacrament are two; the one, an outward and sensible signe, used according to Christs owne appointment; the other an inward and spirituall grace, thereby signified.

Q. How many Sacraments hath Christ instituted in his Church under the New Testament?

A. Under the New Testament Christ hath instituted in his Church onely two Sacraments; Baptisme, and the Lords Supper.

Q. What is Baptisme?

A. Baptisme is a Sacrament of the New Testament, wherein Christ hath ordained the washing with water, in the name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the Holy Ghost, to be a signe and seale of ingrafting into himselfe, of remission of sins by his blood, and regeneration by his spirit, of Adoption, and resurrection unto

Q. Unto whom is Baptisme to be administred?

A. Baptisme is not to be administred to any that are out of the visible Church, and so strangers from the Covenant of promise, till they professe their faith in Christ, and obedience to himⁿ: but infants descending from parents, either both, or but one of them, professing faith in Christ, and obedience to him, are in that respect within the covenant, and to be baptized.^o

Q. How is our Baptisme to be improved by us?

A. The needfull but much neglected duty of improving our Baptisme, is to be performed by us all our life long; especially in the time of temptation, and when we are present at the administration of it to others^p, by serious and thankfull consideration of the nature of it, and of the ends for which Christ instituted it, the priviledges and benefits conferred and sealed thereby, and our solemn vow made therein^q; by being humbled for our sinfull defilement, our falling short of, and walking contrary to the grace of baptisme and our ingagements^r; by growing up to assurance of pardon of sin, and of all other blessings sealed to us in that Sacrament^s; by drawing strength from the death and resurrection of Christ, into whom we are baptized, for the mortifying of sin, and quickning of grace^t; and by endeavouring to live by faith^u, to have our conversation in holinesse and righteousness^w, as those that have therein given up their names to Christ^x, and to walk in brotherly love, as being baptized by the same spirit into one body.^y

Q. What

Q. What is the Lords Supper?

A. The Lords Supper is a Sacrament of the New Testament^z, wherein, by giving and receiving bread and wine according to the appointment of Jesus Christ, his death is shewed forth; and they that worthily communicate, feed upon his body and bloud, to their spirituall nourishment and growth in grace^a, have their union and communion with him confirmed^b, testify and renew their thankfulnes^c and ingagement to God^d, and their mutual love and fellowship each with other, as members of the same mysticall body.^e

Q. How hath Christ appointed Bread and Wine to be given and received in the Sacrament of the Lords Supper?

A. Christ hath appointed the Ministers of his word, in the administration of the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, to set apart the bread and wine from common use, by the word of institution, thanksgiving, and prayer, to take and break the bread, and to give both the Bread, and the Wine to the Communicants, who are, by the same appointment, to take, and eat the Bread, and to drink the Wine, in thankfull remembrance, that the body of Christ was broken and given, and his bloud shed for them.^f

Q. How do they that worthily communicate in the Lords Supper, feed upon the body and bloud of Christ therein?

A. As the body and bloud of Christ are not corporally or carnally present in, with, or under the Bread and Wine in the Lords Supper^g, and yet are spiritually present to the faith of the receiver, no lesse truly and really then the elements themselves are to their outward senses^h: so they that worthily communicate in the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, do therein feed upon the body dy and blood of Christ, not after a corporall, or carnal, but in a spiritual manner, yet truly and really, while by faith they receive and apply unto themselves Christ crucified, and all the benefits of his death.

Q. How are they that receive the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, to prepare themselves before they come unto it?

A. They that receive the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, are, before they come, to prepare themselves thereunto, by examining themselves of their being in Christ, of their sins, and wants, of the truth and measure of their knowledge, faith, repentance, love to God and the brethren, charity to all men, forgiving those that have done them wrong, of their desires after Christ, and of their new obedience; and by renewing the exercise of these graces, by serious meditation, and fervent prayer.

Q. May one who doubteth of his being in Christ, or of his due preparation, come to the Lords Supper?

A. One who doubteth of his being in Christ, or of his due preparation to the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, may have true interest in Christ, though he be not yet assured thereof; and in Gods account, hath it, if he be duly affected with the apprehension of the want of it, and unfainedly desires to be found in Christ, and to depart from iniquity: in which case (because promises are made, and this Sacrament is appointed, for the relieve even of weak and doubting Christians) he is to bewail his unbelief, and labour to have his doubts resolved, and so doing he may and ought to come to the Lords Supper, that he may be further strengthened.

Q. May any who professe the faith, and desire to come to the Lords Supper, be kept from it?

A. Such as are found to be ignorant, or scandalous, notwithstanding their profession of the faith, and desire to come to the Lords Supper, may and ought to be kept from that Sacrament by the power which Christ hath left in his Church, untill they receive instruction, and manifest their reformation.

Q. What is required of them that receive the Sacrament of the Lords Supper in the time of the administration of it?

A. It is required of them that receive the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, that, during the time of the administration of it, with all holy reverence and attention they wait upon God in that ordinance, diligently observe the Sacramentall Elements and actions, heedfully discern the Lords body, and affectionately meditate on his death and sufferings, and thereby stir up themselves to a vigorous exercise of their graces, in judging themselves, and sorrowing for sin, in earnest hungering and thirsting after Christ, feeding on him by faith, receiving of his fulnesse, trusting in his merits, rejoicing in his love, giving thanks for his grace, in renewing of their Covenant with God, and love to all the Saints.

Q. What is the duty of Christians after they have received the Sacrament of the Lord Supper?

A. The duty of Christians after they have received the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, is, seriously to consider how they have behaved themselves therein, and with what success; if they find quickning and comfort, fort, to blesse God for it^c, beg the continuance of it^d, watch against relapses^e, fulfill their vowes^f, and encourage themselves to a frequent attendance on that ordinance^g; but if they find no present benefit, more exactly to review their preparation to, and carriage at the Sacrament^h; in both which if they can approve themselves to God and their own consciences, they are to wait for the fruit of it in due timeⁱ; but if they see they have failed in either, they are to be humbled^k, and to attend upon it afterward with more care and diligence.^l

2. Wherein doe the Sacraments of Baptisme and the Lords Supper agree?

A. The Sacraments of Baptisme and the Lords Supper, agree, in that the author of both is God^m, the spirituall part of both is Christ and his benefitsⁿ, both are seals of the same Covenant^o, are to be dispensed by Ministers of the Gospel and by none other^p, and to be continued in the Church of Christ untill his second coming.^q

2. Wherein do the Sacraments of Baptisme and the Lords Supper differ?

A. The Sacraments of Baptisme and the Lords Supper differ, in that, Baptisme is to be administred but once, with water, to be a sign and seal of our regeneration and ingrafting into Christ^r, and that even to infants^s; whereas the Lords Supper is to be administred often, in the Elements of bread and wine, to represent and exhibit Christ as spirituall nourishment to the soul^t, and to confirm our continuance and growth in him^u, and that onely to such as are of years and ability to examine themselves.^w

2. What is Prayer?

A. Prayer is an offering up of our desires unto God^x, in the Name of Christ^y, by the help of his Spirit^z, with confession of our sins^a, and thankful acknowledgment of his mercies.^b

2. Are we to pray unto God onely?

A. God only being able to search the hearts^c, hear the requests^d, pardon the sins^e, and fulfill the desires of all^f, and only to be beleaved in^g, and worshiped with religious worship^h; prayer, which is a speciall part thereofⁱ, is to be made by all to him alone^k, and to none other.^l

2. What is it to pray in the Name of Christ?

A. To pray in the Name of Christ, is, in obedience to his command, and in confidence on his promises, to ask mercy for his sake^m, not by bare mentioning of his Nameⁿ, but by drawing our encouragement to pray, and our boldnesse, strength, and hope of acceptance in prayer, from Christ and his mediation.^o

2. Why are we to pray in the name of Christ?

A. The sinfulness of man, and his distance from God by reason thereof, being so great as that we can have no access into his presence without a Mediatour^p; and there being none in heaven or earth appointed to, or fit for that glorious work, but Christ alone^q; we are to pray in no other name but his onely.^r

2. How doth the Spirit help us to pray?

A. We not knowing what to pray for as we ought, the Spirit helpeth our infirmities, by inabling us to understand both for whom, and what, and how prayer is to be made, and by working and quickning in our hearts, (although not in all persons, nor at all times, in the same measure)

Q. For whom are we to pray?

A. We are to pray for the whole Church of Christ, upon earth^c, for Magistrates^u and Ministers^w, for our selves^x, our brethren^y, yea our enemies^z, and for all sorts of men living^a, or that shall live hereafter^b; but not for the dead^c, nor for those that are known to have sinned the sin unto death.^d

Q. For what things are we to pray?

A. We are to pray for all things tending to the glory of God^e, the welfare of the Church^f, our own^g or others good^h; but not for any thing that is unlawfullⁱ.

Q. How are we to pray?

A. We are to pray, with an awfull apprehension of the Majesty of God^k, and deep sense of our own unworthinesse^l, necessities^m, and sinsⁿ; with penitent^o, thankful^p, and enlarged hearts^q; with understanding^r, faith^s, sincerity^t, fervency^u, love^w, and perseverance^x, waiting upon him^y with humble submission to his will.^z

Q. What rule hath God given for our direction in the duty of prayer?

A. The whole word of God is of use to direct us in the duty of praying^a; but the speciall rule of direction is that form of prayer, which our Saviour Christ taught his Disciples, commonly called the Lords Prayer^b.

Q. How is the Lords Prayer to be used?

A. The Lords Prayer is not onely for direction, as a pattern according to which we are to make other prayers; but may also be used as a prayer, so that it be done with understanding, faith, reverence, and other graces necessary to the right performance of the duty of prayer.^c

Q. Of how many parts doth the Lords Prayer consist?

A. The Lords Prayer consists of three parts, a Preface, Petitions, and a Conclusion.

Q. What doth the Preface of the Lords Prayer teach us?

A. The Preface of the Lords Prayer [contained in these words, Dur Father which art in Heaven^d] teacheth us, when we pray, to draw near to God with confidence of his fatherly goodnesse, and our interest therein^e, with reverence and all other child-like dispositions^f, heavenly affections^g, and due apprehensions of his sovereign power, Majesty, and gracious condescension^h; as also to pray with and for others.ⁱ

Q. What do we pray for in the first Petition?

A. In the first petition, [which is, Hallowed be thy name^k,] acknowledging the utter inability and indisposition that is in our selves & all men to honor God aright^l; we pray that God would by his grace inable and incline us and others to know, to acknowledge and highly to esteem him^m, his titlesⁿ, attributes^o, ordinances, word^p, works, and whatsoever he is pleased to make himselfe known by^q, and to glorifie him in thought, word, and deed^s; that he would prevent and remove Atheisme^t, ignorance^u, idolatry^w, profanenesse^x, and whatsoever is dishonourable to him^y; and by his over-ruling providence, direct and dispose of all things to his owne glory.^z

Q. What

2. What do we pray for in the second Petition?

A. In the second Petition, (which is, Thy Kingdom come^a) acknowledging our selves and all man-kind to be by nature under the dominion of sin and Sathan^b; we pray, that the kingdome of sin, and Sathan, may be destroyed^c, the Gospel propagated throughout the world^d, the Jewes called^e, the fulnesse of the Gentiles brought in^f, the Church furnished with all Gospel officers and ordinances^g, purged from corruption^h, countenanced and maintained by the civil magistrateⁱ; that the ordinances of Christ may be purely dispensed and made effectual to the converting of those that are yet in their sins, and the confirming, comforting and building up of those that are already converted^k; that Christ would rule in our hearts here^l, and hasten the time of his second coming, and our reigning with him for ever^m; and that he would be pleased so to exercise the kingdome of his power in all the world, as may best conduce to these endsⁿ.

2. What do we pray for in the fourth Petition?

A. In the fourth Petition, (which is, Give us this day our dayly bread^a), acknowledging that in Adam, and by our own sin, we have forfeited our right to all the outward blessings of this life, and deserve to be wholly deprived of them by God, and to have them cursed to us in the use of them^b; and that neither they of themselves are able to sustain us^c, nor we to merit^d, or by our own industry to procure them^e, but prone to desire^f, get^g, and use them unlawfully^h; we pray for our selves and others, that both they and we, waiting upon the providence of God from day to day in the use of lawfull means, may, of his free gift, and as to his fatherly wisdom shall seem best, injoy a competent portion of themⁱ, and have the same continued and blessed unto us in our holy and comfortable use of them^j, and contentment in them^k; and be kept from all things that are contrary to our temporall support and comfort.^l that we and all others are guilty both of original and actual sin, and thereby become debtors to the justice of God, and that neither we, nor any other creature can make the least satisfaction for that debt^w; we pray for our selves and others, that God of his free grace would, through the obedience and satisfaction of Christ apprehended and applied by faith, acquit us both from the guilt and punishment of sin^x, accept us in his beloved^y, continue his favour and grace to us^z, pardon our daily failings^a, and fill us with peace and joy in giving us daily more and more assurance of forgivenesse^b; which we are the rather imboldened to aske, and encouraged to expect when we have this testimony in our selves, that we from the heart forgive others their offences.^c

2. What do we pray for in the sixth Petition?

A. In the sixth Petition, (which is, And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil^d;) acknowledging, that the most wise, righteous, and gracious God, for divers holy and just ends, may so order things, that we may be assaulted, foiled, & for a time led captive by temptations^e; that Sathan^f, the world^g, and the flesh are ready powerfully to draw us aside and insnare us^h; and that we, even after the pardon of our sins, by reason of our corruptionⁱ, weaknesse, & want of watchfulnes^k, are not onely subject to be tempted, and forward to expose our selves unto temptations^l, but also of ourselves unable and unwilling to resist them, to recover out of them & to improve them^m, and, worthy to be left under the power of themⁿ; we pray, that God would so overrule the world and all in it^o, subdue the flesh^p, and restrain Sathan^q, order all things^r, bestow and blesse all means meanes of grace^s, and quicken us to watchfulnesse in the use of them, that we and all his people may by his providence be kept from being tempted to sin^t, or, if tempted, that by his spirit we may be powerfully supported and enabled to stand in the houre of temptation^u, or, when fallen, raised again and recovered out of it^w, and have a sanctified use and improvement thereof^x; that our sanctification and salvation may be perfected^y, Sathan trodden under our feet^z, and we fully freed from sin, temptation, and all evil for ever.^a

2. What doth the conclusion of the Lords Prayer teach us?

A. The conclusion of the Lords Prayer, (which is, For thine is the Kingdom the power and the glory for ever, Amen.^b) teacheth us to enforce our petitions with arguments^c, which are to be taken not from any worthinesse in our selves, or in any other creature, but from God^d; and with our prayers to joyn prayses^e, ascribing to God alone eternall sovereignty, omnipo-tency, and glorious excellency^f; in regard whereof, as he is able and willing to help us^g, so we by faith are imboldned to plead with him that he would^h, and quietly to rely upon him that he will fulfill our requestsⁱ; and to testify this our desire and assurance, we say, Amen^k.
